🚒 VOLUNTEERS HELPING OUR FIREFIGHTERS

2nd Alarmers Association of St. Johns County — Tactical Support

A Registered 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Volunteer Organization

🌟 Our Mission

When emergency crews face prolonged, exhausting, or critical incidents, the 2nd Alarmers Association is there to back them up. We provide vital rehabilitation assistance, scene lighting, hydration, and nutrition directly to St. Johns County Fire Rescue personnel. Our selfless service ensures our local firefighters stay safe, sharp, and physically supported through long hours and tough conditions.

🛠️ What We Do on Scene

- Emergency Rehabilitation: Providing a safe zone for medical monitoring, vitals checks, and cooling down or warming up.
- Hydration & Nutrition: Keeping crews fueled and hydrated during extended operations or training exercises.
- Logistical Support: Deploying lighting systems, scene shelters, and extra hands so tactical teams can keep their focus completely on the hazard at hand.
- Enhancing Readiness: Directly boosting first responder wellness and overall department operational readiness.
